the 1952 SPECTRUM

Invites you to see what makes North Central tick

Dedication

"To see her is to love her . . .
For nature made her what she is,
And never made another!"
Robert Burns

Twinkling eyes and smiling lips announced the presence of our petite French Mademoiselle at North Central College. Although she has "roamed o'er many lands" and made many new friends, she has not forgotten "one fair scene or kindly smile." She has an abundance of rich, warm, feelings that allow her to include everyone with whom she comes into contact. In appreciation of this radiating personality and friendliness, the Senior Class dedicates the 1952 SPECTRUM to Mademoiselle Annette Sicre.

Foreword

The real value of anything lies beyond the face of it. Outside appearance, all too often the determining factor, is not the true criterion of worth. So with North Central College, a person has to go beyond the buildings, to the students, faculty, organizations, athletics, and activities to fathom its personality. In the 1952 SPECTRUM we have made an analogy between North Central and a precision time-piece, composed of many parts. We are "inviting the reader to see what makes North Central tick"; to step behind the face for a close-up of the works.

A clock is an amazing piece of machinery. Countless cogs, gears, wheels and springs combine in harmonious rhythm to tick out the time for man. It has so many parts that to the casual observer most go without notice or meaning. Yet, if one of the parts were to be removed, the clock would stop and would not start until balance was restored. We believe it is the same way with North Central, that every part big or little, conspicuous or unnoticed, plays its part in making North Central tick.

We hope that this SPECTRUM will serve as a reminder of happy experiences we have had in college, that as we go forth we will make North Central's honor known, and oft look back to watch her course.

FACULTY and CLASSES

Knowledge and co-operation

geared to perfection

President Geiger

Contrary to the belief that a college president's position is the loneliest office on earth, the students of North Central College have found in Doctor C. H. Geiger an understanding friend who is willing to help and advise them; thereby proving his work to be one full of continual relationships.

In addition to a close student relationship, President Geiger has also maintained a similar feeling of good will with the members of the faculty. He is always willing to listen to their suggestions and comply as far as the policy of the board permits.

Senior Class

Seniors "should live . . .

Said a jolly old pedagogue long ago."

And lived they have, rollicking through parties and activities, enjoying themselves immensely. Of course, the seniors have also worked hard during the year, putting the finishing touches on themselves and their education for a degree from North Central College. The Senior Class came to realize that work and study must be balanced by leisure time activities and hence tried to round out their college life with "a perfect year."

Early fall saw the seniors assuming positions of responsibility and accustoming themselves to the honor of being the "sages of NCC" (no offence, profs). Along with the falling leaves, the senior girls' corduroy weskits and the men's plaid vests dotted the campus. As old man winter threw his cloak over the area, most of everyone's time was spent on studies, exams, and that long wait until the grades came out. With spring, the thoughts of every hale and hearty senior turned to Skip Day. (What did you expect?) Granted—the thoughts of some did turn to the Junior-Senior Banquet and to that certain special someone. Planning and producing the class play was hard work, but an enjoyable task which kept many busy for weeks. As warm weather again returned, the Senior Class began to prepare for commencement and a different way of life.

STANDING: Mayer, vice-pres.; Lenz, president.

Turning back the leaves of memory, or to be more practical her secretary's book, Martha Beed found inscribed therein many virtues of the class of 1953. On the first few pages, many events of the junior class were recorded. They wasted little time, starting the pendulum swinging with both feet flying at the Junior Class Square Dance. The chuck wagon crew was on hand (really on foot) to rustle up the blackcows and flapjacks.

Turning to their more sophisticated means of entertainment, who can forget the all male Burlesque Show, composed ninety percent of pre-theological students? The show was highlighted by the appearance of Red River Dave, and, straight from the Latin Quarter, Luvacious Lily.

For the more athletic members of the class, President Jim Lenz approved an evening of sports for the sole purpose of demonstrating strength—"We are few, but we are strong." All those who attended this year's Junior-Senior Banquet came away with a satisfied feeling. The food was good, and the speaker was excellent.

Carol Mamsen, treasurer, who had been on the lookout for new business enterprises for financing this big event, quickly agreed to uphold the instigator of the hat and coat checking services "only" for the convenience of the basketball patrons. The class closed the book, and the year, with the inimitable words of Vice-President Skeet Mayer:

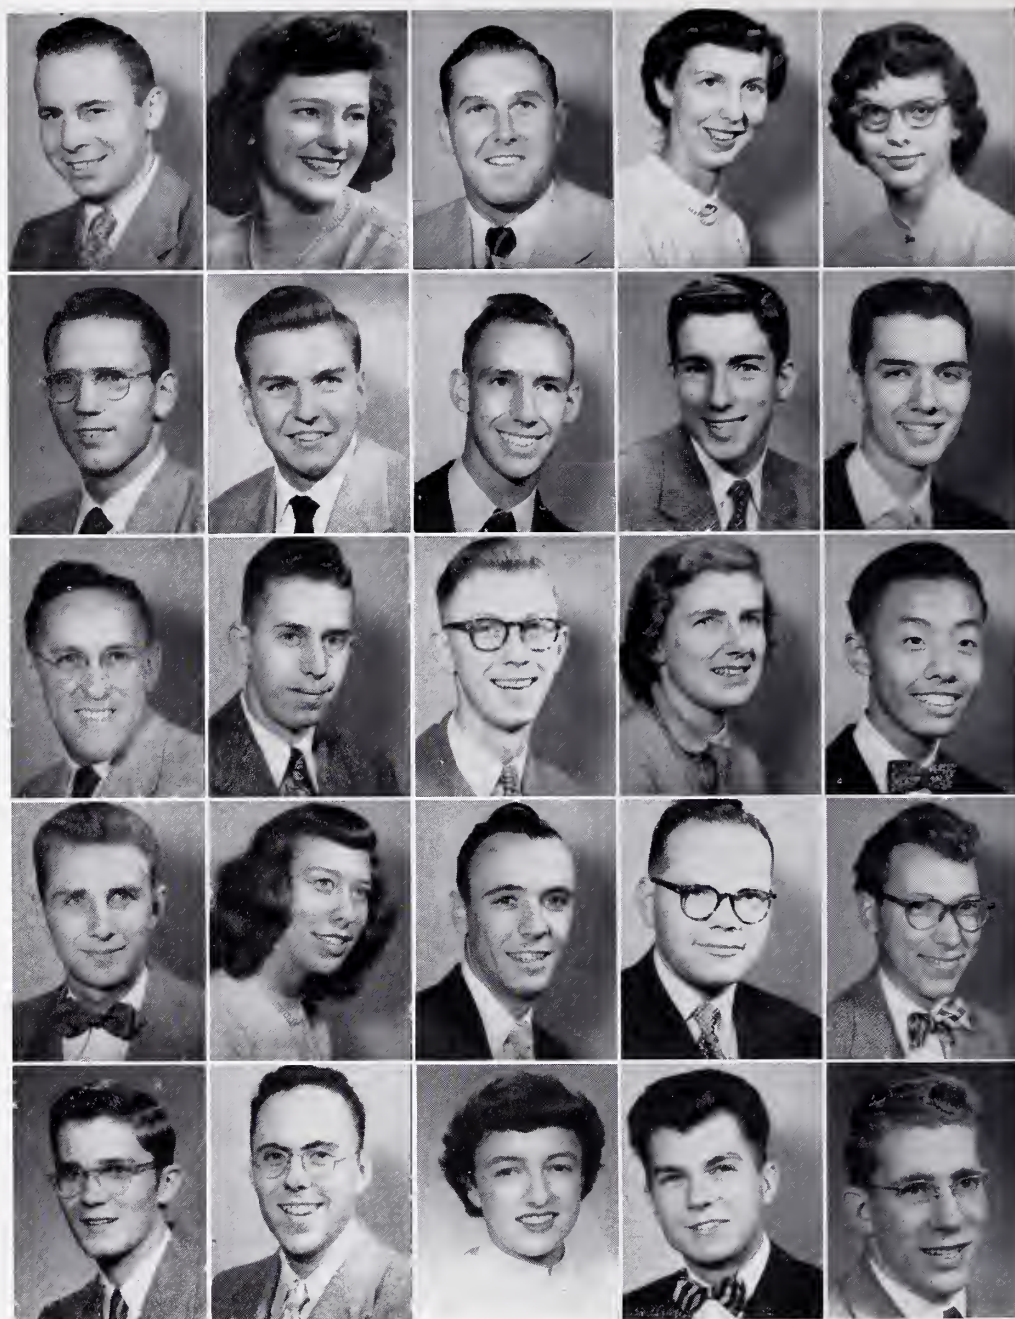

"May the waving flag be lowered:
Our heads in silence bowed,
When this class of '53
Draws anchor and puts to sea."

"Spirit Galore, with '54!" With like enthusiasm and superior strength, the victorious sophs (yea!) "waved" the frosh across the roaring DuPage River in a record seventeen seconds, to remain forever undefeated in their special niche of the annual tug-of-war "Hall of Fame." A few weeks later they added to their prestige among the upper-classmen by ripping through the frosh again, 5-1, in Homecoming weekend's push ball contest.

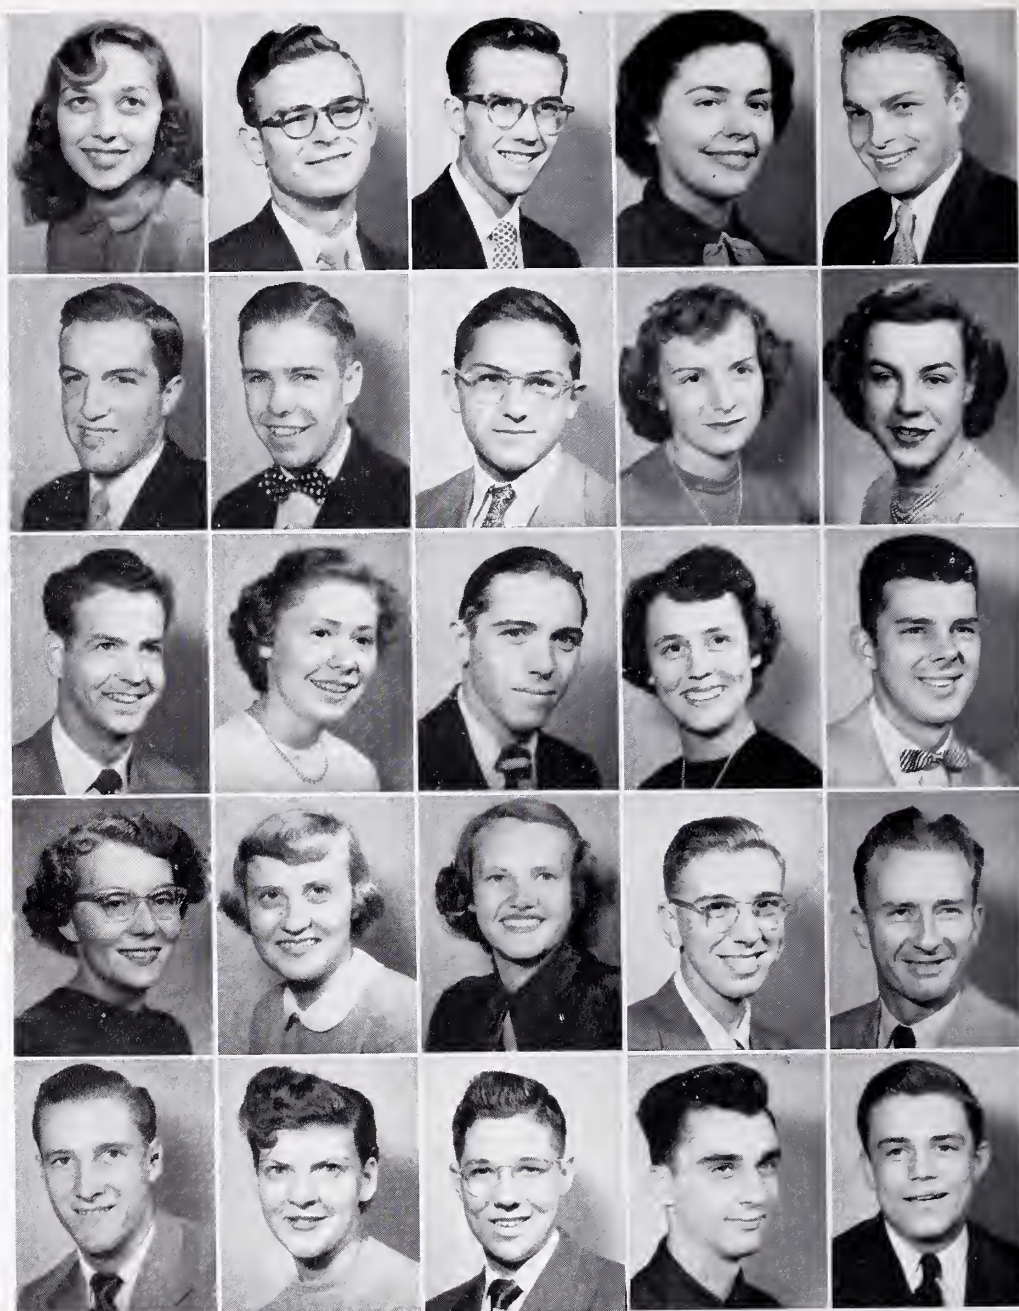

Many alumni and students will remember the float of venerable Old Main, displayed in the class's green and white colors, in the Homecoming parade. Likewise they will remember the soph "Stars" who performed in "As You Liked It" and in the exciting athletic exploitations.

A rollicking all school carnival "Carousel," was sponsored by sophs in the late fall of 1951. Nichols Hall was transformed into a gay fiesta of hat, horn, and balloon prizes for winners of the contests. Queen Lois Henning and King Carl Silvermail reigned over the festivities.

In their greatest undertaking of the year, The Soph Minstrel Show, this class provided the entire student body with an evening of (to quote the soph's) "unequaled entertainment."

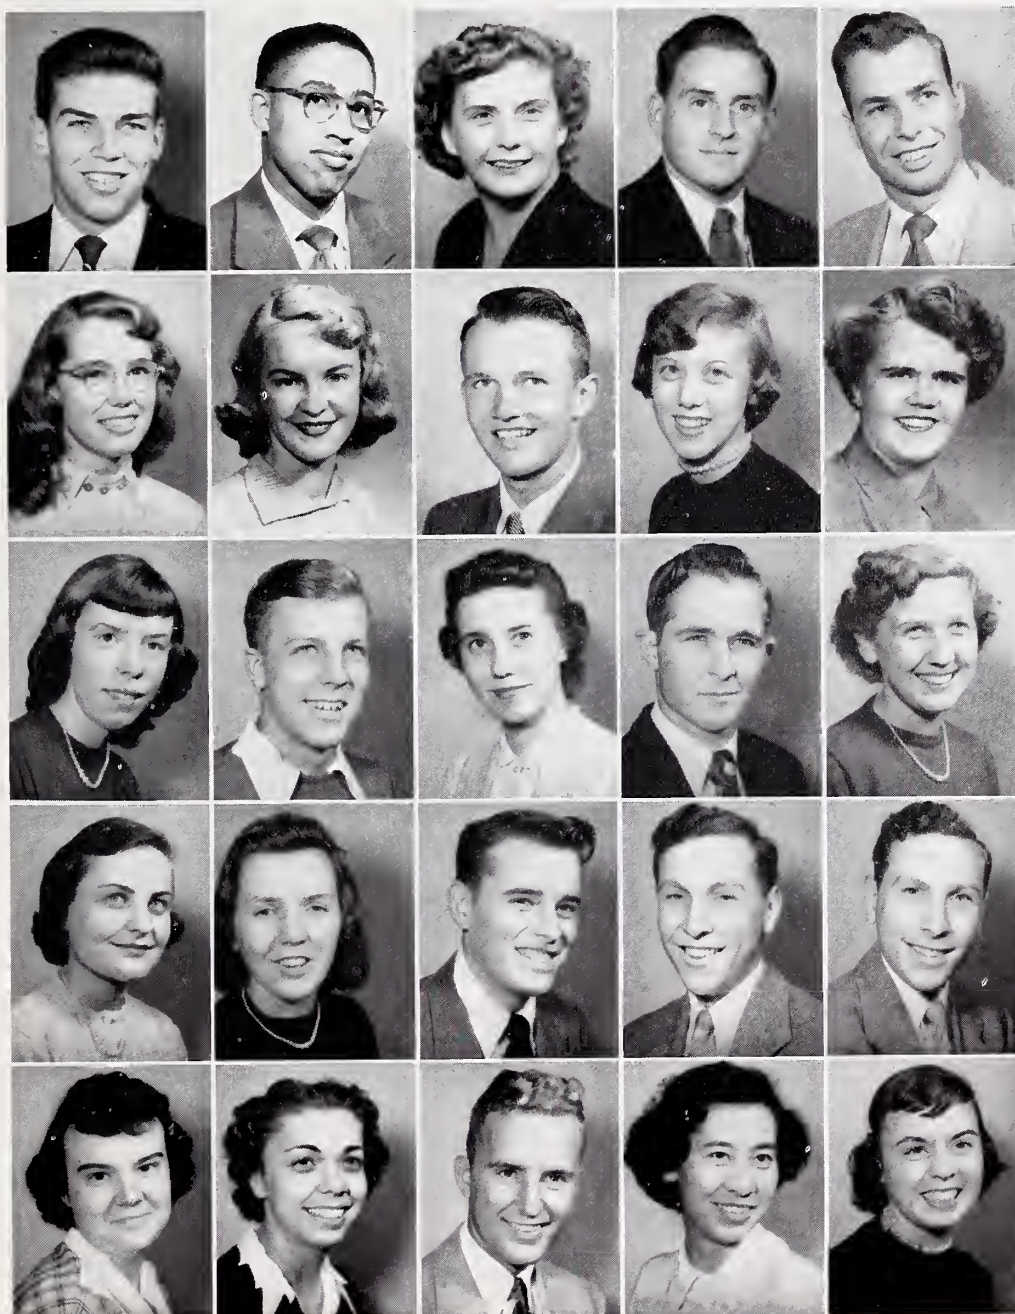

Guiding the Class of 1954 through a year crammed with successful activities were class officers: President Tom Stachnik, Vice-President Toh-Leong Tan, Secretary Nancy Blotch, Treasurer Carolyn Rein, Women's Representative Phyllis Parker, and Men's Representative Don Utzman.

Freshman Class

"Button Frosh!" As a group of green freshmen entered the portals of North Central College, this phrase was shouted from the hale and hearty lungs of the upper-classmen. Shortly after the semester began, frosh orientation was introduced to the bewildered, but brave frosh. Little red beanies perched on their heads offered a new color and life to the campus. As time went on, Homecoming weekend loomed in the horizon. These frosh believed that the biggest Homecoming bonfire North Central ever had was built by them. The next day, as the football team made their first touchdown, a loud raucous cheer went up from the frosh as it was the last day of orientation and beanies.

After a few months, class elections were held. Ed Eigenbrodt was elected president; Richard Norenberg, vice-president; Chris Arneson, secretary; Miriam Flickinger, treasurer; Neil Nielson, men's representative; and Sylvia Ebinger, women's representative. Following these elections, the frosh were formally accepted by the school at a formal reception. They were no longer considered just "nobodies," but were now part of that great kingdom North Central College. After this, the class of '55" began working as one unit. The first event was the frosh party to which all the eager frosh came out for an enjoyable square dance and fun.

One organization, whose sole membership is made up of freshmen is the Frosh Pep Club. Headed by Janet Wolberg and Evelyn Best, this group rooted for the football and basketball teams, whether victory or defeat. Also, many of the frosh participated in other extra-curricular activities and helped to make this school one of which they could be proud. Thus, the class of '55 went forward, success as their goal.

Student Council

 ROW 2: Prof. Schap, Lindgren, Fairbank, Hoover, Simmons, Davis.
 ROW 3: Bradish, Kliphardt, Schaefer, Bueche, Mahnke.

North Central is fortunate to have a Student Council which discusses and settles many of the important affairs on and off campus. The council regulates all student affairs and carries student opinion to the administration. Functioning in many activities, the council put on a very successful Homecoming, controlled Friday chapels, ran a used book service, engineered College Day, and worked on the problems of class cuts and of student evaluation of their professors.

The bi-weekly meetings found the Student Council room occupied by the representatives-at-large; representatives from the different classes and Christian organizations; and from the publication, athletic, and forensic boards, and the faculty. All subjects of the Kingdom of North Central interested in council proceedings attended these meetings.

The executive committee composed of Ruth Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Marilyn Hoover, vice-president; and John Adams, president, co-ordinated the activities. At mid-semester Marilyn accepted the duties of President which were left vacant by the graduation of John. Professor Schap ably advised this important governing organization.

John Adams, president.

Social Commission

The life of a North Central College student is not all work; studies are always balanced by fun. The Social Commission is the organization which helps to provide this fun through its well-planned activities, some of which were: hay rides, square dances, teas, receptions, and skating parties. The Athletic Board, YWCA and YMCA, the Music School, Student Council, Commuter's Club, and each class are represented in the commission. The officers of this active group, Tom Moore, vice chairman and chairman of the calendar committee; Connie Langher, secretary; and Byron Light, treasurer, were headed by Chairman Chuck Attig and advised by Professor Bruhn.

The Social Commission's main purpose is to provide social events in accordance with the policy of the school. It plans certain activities which are actually carried out by persons or organizations appointed by it. Acting as a central clearing house for all social events on the campus, it also controls the school calendar, thereby assuring no conflicting dates.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Members of Pi Kappa Delta have learned a vital key to obtaining success, that of expressing themselves. To be admitted into this honorary forensic fraternity, persons must have gained a sufficient number of points by participating in debate, extemporaneous speaking, or oration at intercollegiate tournaments. Before the students exhibited their skill at tournaments, they had to learn about both sides of the subject concerned.

Not only does being a member of Pi Kappa Delta give training in the art of speaking and arguing effectively, but it also teaches participants to judge factual material and to enter into competition. The chapter of this fraternity at North Central was advised by Professor Oliver.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

North Central College is proud to present its thespian talent under the direction of Professor Oliver to the Delta Epsilon chapter of Alpha Psi Omega. This national honorary dramatic fraternity attempts to set up and to maintain standards of good dramatics. The qualifications for membership include a scholastic average of 1.5 and participation in three one act plays.

Each year a group of plays is selected for production, and the actors divide themselves into groups of "budding Barrymores," providing the students of NCC with many moments of enjoyment. Their work, however, is not all play; they also act as the back stage crew and as designers of the scenery.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

Gamma Gamma Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, a national English fraternity, is composed of English majors who are interested in writing and have maintained a scholastic average of "B." Wherever the members met to discuss their manuscripts, (although there was no literary coffee-house available) the culture ran high enough so that even Doctor Johnson would have been amazed. This year's officers were Jerry Lindgren, president; Connie Langher, vice-president; Ruth Johnson, secretary-treasurer; and Violet Pal, historian. They were advised by Miss Wiley.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

On campus the International Relations Club is the organization which promotes interest and study in international affairs. Its members take part in discussions designed toward a greater understanding of international problems. This "world-minded" group sent delegates to conventions and had regular monthly meetings combined with History Club and Pi Gamma Mu. Jim Kerr served as president, John Littlewood as vice-president, and Marilyn Mack as secretary-treasurer. Doctor McGee advised this organization.

Sigma Rho Gamma

With a song in their hearts and an interest for music, twenty-five Sigma Rho Gamma members form NCC's chapter of this national honorary music society. Monthly meetings include lectures concerning music, student performances demonstrating the lectures, and moving pictures. Sigma Rho Gamma is the sponsoring organization behind student concert trips to Chicago. Curtis Mathison, president; Geraldine Koelling, vice-president; Dorothy Foose, secretary; and Ronald Gould, treasurer, have provided the society with leadership during the past year.

In addition to majoring in biology, the members of Beta Beta Beta must qualify in personality, character, and scholastic achievement. This honorary biological fraternity, under the direction of President Dick Foth, Secretary Faith Schule, and Historian Bob Corretore, stimulates sound scholarship, promotes the dissemination of scientific truth, and encourages its members to investigate into the life sciences. These officers, in conjunction with Doctor Eigenbrodt and Doctor Keck, also direct the activities of Biology Club.

PI GAMMA MU

During the past year, Rosemary Hewitt directed the activities of Pi Gamma Mu. The programs, including talks by student speakers on significant relationships in the social sciences, helped to achieve the objectives of this national social science honor society. The most important item on the agenda in the past has been the sponsoring of the Human Relations Conference which occurs in the spring. A new practice this year has been to have joint meetings with the History Club and the International Relations Club.

THE NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The National Student Association is an organization composed of people who are sincerely concerned about student affairs at North Central. Working in sub-committees, these people offer resolutions and suggestions to the Student Council for the improvement of student life. This year, under the able leadership of Hank Strand, the group has given the students many privileges and cultural advantages; such as movies and the newly organized student discount service.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Publications Board is vested with the power of controlling all publications and policies of publication. The student members—Jerry Lindgren, Al Brons, Helen Dresser, Dick Hawthorne, and Bill Livernash—were active in carrying out the work. Together, with the faculty advisors, including Doctor Seybold, Doctor Eigenbrodt, and Professor Eastman, they also recommended students for all major positions of North Central's publications and regulated the finances of these productions.

STUDENT FINANCE BOARD

Student Finance Board is the policy making body of student finance. The Board's duty and responsibility is to ascertain that the activity fund is being administered honestly and with consideration for sound business principles. This group approves budgets, audits the accounts of the student comptroller and various organizations, and supersedes any other student-faculty group in financial matters. Interested students attended meetings which were headed by Professor Page and Comptroller Charles Bueche.

Closer co-operation between the women on and off campus was the goal of the Women's Advisory Board. Marilyn Hoover, president; Vonnie Sather, secretary; and the dorm presidents, held their discussions of problems which came up in the dorms under the watchful eye of Miss Meier, Dean of Women. These girls also found time to plan the annual matinee chats which were held second semester for the enjoyment of all the women of North Central. The theme of these chats revolved around the intellectual topic of a finer appreciation of the arts.

This year, the forensic board revised its entire constitution. Under the new document it consists of: two members from Theater Guild, two members from Radio Club, and two members from "pure forensics." The board supervised all extra-curricular activities connected with the department of speech, handled and dispersed forensic board funds, and approved business propositions of two speech divisions—forensics and radio. Professor Oliver kept a weather eye on all proceedings.

ATHLETIC BOARD OF CONTROL

The general policy making body for all athletic teams and events at North Central is the Athletic Board of Control. It is composed of both faculty and students. William Bradish, as president of the Athletic Association, Connie Langher, as president of WAA, and Jack Will, as general student representative, governed all intercollegiate and intramural sports. They were advised in regulating these activities by the faculty representatives; Mr. L. Belding, Miss C. Tanner, Dr. C. Hower, and Dr. A. Page.

W.A.A. BOARD OF CONTROL

The work of planning the athletic and social events sponsored by WAA and overseeing all its activities is done by the WAA Board. This group, advised by Miss Tanner, is composed of the four officers of WAA, two social chairmen, a publicity chairman, and representatives of sports. Not only is each sport represented, but it is under the responsibility of one girl on the board. Meetings were held twice a month.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

"Won't you have a beaker of cranberry tea?" are familiar words often overheard at the annual Chemistry Club holiday tea. This is just one of the many activities that further interest in the organization. Field trips, movies, student seminars, and speeches by well-known men constitute some of the other proceedings.

Chemistry Club carried on its work this past year under the leadership of Paul Puckorius, Jim Bingle, and Rainie Davis. Although the more advanced students prefer to be known as members of the Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society, the club is open to anyone interested in chemistry.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Various activities of the Biology Club were carried out under the capable leadership of the Beta Beta Beta officers. The encouragement of interest by students in the field of biology was their main object. Those who fell under the influence of the biological sciences joined or attended the informative meetings which were held every other week in the Union Room. Outstanding people in the field of biology and related subjects were invited to speak at these meetings. They also sponsored two field trips to points of biological interest located in the Chicago area.

The College Chronicle

From pulp paper and printer's ink to a good newspaper is a long route and can only be trodden by those who know the way. The paper itself is inanimate, but the work and skill of its composers gives it life and personality.

The 1951-1952 COLLEGE CHRONICLE progressed and matured with every issue, gradually developing its personality and style under the skillful leadership of Jerry Lindgren, editor; Ruth Johnson, associate editor; and Al Brons, publisher.

Under the Lindgren-Johnson-Brons reign the CHRONICLE took on a light and humorous personality (The reader is referred to the issue in which alligators were found sunning themselves on the banks of the DuPage River, cheerfully anticipating a full meal from the forthcoming tug of war), but reserved a serious and sensible view on matters of real importance. Jerry co-ordinated the work of all departments, made up the dummy, and sometimes even set the type in order to get the paper out on time. Ruth's lot fell to writing last minute stories, proofreading, and, colloquially speaking, everything from "soup to nuts." In all respects she did an admirable job as associate editor. Al set forth to finance the CHRONICLE by selling $2400 worth of advertising. The enormity of a job like that can only be appreciated fully by a person who has tramped the streets selling advertising for a school publication. Not content with merely financing the CHRONICLE, Al launched his literary career with a weekly column "Borrowed by Brons." (As the SPECTRUM went to press, Al had successfully avoided any libel suits.)

Under the CHRONICLE training program, Mary Kolze, Jim Kerr, Marilyn Bender, and Larry Ross took over and directed the publication of the November 16 issue. Mary's regular job was writing "Snapshots" and aiding in make-up, Jim rounded up photos and prepared them for the engraver, Marilyn assigned news stories and ran down leads, and Larry was a pavement pounder, selling CHRONICLE ad space.

Athletic events were well covered this year in the sports section. Stories were assigned by Sports Editor Joe Pletcher, and athletic publicity man Colwell wrote "On the Sidelines" and follow-ups of games played. Nancy Blotch and Donna Siemsen tapped artesian wells of secret information and came up with the rather interesting "Social Swirl." Don "Klip" Kliphardt interviewed 100 students a week on various controversial subjects and reported the results in "The Barber Poll." Feature stories were written by Liz Gatz, and "Weekend in Chicago" was handled by Gary Kleine. Cameramen Ed Kniss and Chuck Kolb supplied the CHRONICLE with up-to-the-minute news photos. Doctors Seybold and Eigenbrodt served as advisors.

The CHRONICLE took on a "new look" this year in its policy of limiting capital letters. In a sense, it became a trail-breaker in the field of modern journalism.

The Spectrum Company

The SPECTRUM Company, established 1910, has been serving satisfied customers with quality yearbooks for over 42 years. The '52 model is the accumulation of years of yearbook-making experience, and hence, we believe the best of its kind on the market today.

Seriously speaking, the staff has worked very hard on the '52 SPECTRUM in an effort to make it the best of its kind. Mel Gabel, art editor, created the two-color division pages and helped develop the theme. His work required time and skill; and he gave generously of both. Scotty Elliott, associate editor, played her part in design work on the dummy. Unforgettable Tom "Grandpa" Ludwig became the personification of "SPECTRUM Spirit," and inspired the entire staff from top on down to raise their work to top quality. Tom's official capacity was Publicity Director and Ambassador to the COLLEGE CHRONICLE. Joe Pletcher, sports editor, and Neil Colwell, associate sports editor, combined their talents to fill the athletic section of this book with "live" sports write-ups.

It happens to every editor. Somewhere along the line—he can never be sure just where—he finds himself no longer the top authority. (Enter the fair sex.) Violet Pal and Jean Oran became the first in SPECTRUM history to hold down junior assistant positions and also to assume the major responsibility of Literary and Class Editors, respectively. Vi and Jean became mainstays of the SPECTRUM Company; and even this editor has to admit it was worth losing his authority to two "little girls."

The work of a yearbook divides itself into two halves, literary and finance. The business department of the SPECTRUM makes publication possible. Without it, no annual could be published. Bill Livernash, business manager of the 1952 SPECTRUM, and his staff financed the '52 book, combing the surrounding countryside convincing merchants of the merits of yearbook advertising. To Bill's credit goes the SPECTRUM blotter, a new set of business policies, a re-

Bill Zielske, who served on the business and editorial staffs, deserves special mention for his work. Home Economics Club

Home Economics Club binds home economics students together while they are in school, gives them knowledge and practice in self-initiated group work, provides them with a true vision of home economics, and offers an opportunity for friendship between students and faculty.

Throughout the school year the members held meetings in which they stressed the different occupations in the field of home economics, good grooming, and home decorations. The organization climaxed its activities by sponsoring the Spring Style Show in which the girls modeled the clothes they had made.

Commerce Club

Commerce Club, composed of "business-minded" students with at least six hours of commerce credit, was led by Bill Kohlman, Fletch Johnson, Marguerite Veh, and George Bentz and was advised by Dr. Charles Keller.

The club achieves its purpose of increasing interest in commerce through an association with members of the business world by holding conferences, banquets, and parties. In addition to this, the club makes tours to financial, industrial, and merchandising institutions in the Chicago area. It also sponsors discussions with business men on the opportunities and requirements for success in business.

Young Women's Christian Association has provided the opportunity for each girl to gain inspiration from its religious program, to attain a more intimate friendship between Big and Little Sisters, and to develop friendly contact with fellow students. The sole purpose underlying the various committees was the development of heart, mind, and personality into a Christian life. The officers: Lil Kaiser, president; Marion Simmons, vice-president; Rainie Davis, secretary; and Jane Hooton, treasurer, closely knit their program with that of the YMCA, as evidenced by the WSSF drive and Vocational Guidance.

Y.M.C.A.

This past year the "Y" has tried to put the emphasis on "service": service to God, man, and school. The year started with a fresh coat of paint for the YM room and with the Big-Little Brother Banquet. The YM worked in conjunction with the YW in activities such as chapel, social work camps, and WSSF, and realized the meaning of Christian citizenship. President Elmer Sundby, Vice-President Gordon Mahnke, Secretary Ben Zimdars, and Treasurer Truman Stehr, directed these activities and were ably advised by Doctors M. W. Bischoff, I. A. Koten, and A. The '51 - '52 officers of CYF were: Carl Lemna, president; Truman Stehr, vice-president; Margaret Weiss, secretary; and Phyllis Parker, treasurer.

HISTORY CLUB

The History Club of North Central College is a campus organization which seeks to foster an interest in history. This year the group met in conjunction with Pi Gamma Mu and International Relations Club. These three organizations have presented a monthly series of talks on current issues in the 1952 presidential election. In doing this they hoped to encourage more intelligent voting and to increase knowledge of current affairs.

Spanish Club

Saludos Amigos, a predominantly social club, holds bi-weekly meetings which are led by Dwaine Barger, president; Dick Calhoun, vice-president; Lois Henning, secretary; Donna Siemsen, treasurer; and Senora Luntz, counselor. Any student interested in Spanish culture is invited to attend these meetings.

The members, who try to further the interest of students toward the Spanish culture and the Spanish way of life, enjoy a Spanish dinner as well as parties and picnics.

Every month the members of Le Cercle Francais met at the home of their favorite "French sweetheart," Mlle. Sicre, to spend a few hours in studying the France of yesterday and today, including famous French festivals and plays. The students also sent packages of food and clothing to impoverished French families. Connie Haas, president, and Mary Bomberger, secretary-treasurer, said that such efforts were greatly appreciated as evidenced by the letters received by the club.

The "Chugalong Cassidys" were up at the "Crack of Dawn," and, after packing their books, were riding hard along the Old North Central Trail. Day after day this routine was repeated. Every time the chuck wagon pulled up, it seemed that all that was in it was coffee and sandwiches. At Thanksgiving and Christmas time, Marilyn Hlavnicka, ranch owner, sent Dorothy Kouba, cook, and Maida Petrie, foreman, out to the hands with a special feast. When the end of the drive was in sight, all hands relaxed and enjoyed a picnic. Rounding up the year, Bill Zielske, trail boss, said, "It was a long, hard drive, but we finally made it."

Student Union Board of Control

The Student Union Board of Control has charge of regulating the use of the Student Union suite, keeping the rooms clean, and supervising the snack bar. Dr. Schaefer was the faculty advisor of the board; Don Kliphardt managed the "bar," and Roger Ulrich was Klip's floor-sweeping assistant. Gordon Mahnke and Lois Henning made up the rest of the board's personnel.

(Editor's note: Best reception is acquired by placing the radio under a telephone pole.)

WRITERS' CLUB

Members of Writers' Club brought original creations of poetry and prose-work to their bi-weekly meetings. Helen Dresser, president, invited criticism and commendation on each individual's work. Anyone who produced a suitable piece of work was urged to join. Professor Eastman, the advisor, promoted their purpose: to instigate interest among all students to do some creative work in the literary field.

Concert Choir

With a voice for singing, bulging suitcases, and the enthusiastic backing of NCC, 35 Concert Choir members toured among EUB churches in Minnesota and Wisconsin. They carried the "voice of North Central" on their annual spring concert tour. Believing that "There is no truer truth obtainable by man, than comes of music," they sang in several surrounding churches in addition to Pfeiffer Hall stage.

Capably directed by Professor Richmond, these NCC musicmakers were led through a memorable year by President Don Utzman, Vice-President Ted Snider, Secretary-Treasurer Phil Parker, Business-Manager Chuck Fleck, and Librarians Jane Kote and Jim Kerr.

"The Lord is in His holy temple. Let all the earth keep silence before Him." Chapel Choir has the distinction of singing to larger audiences than any other group on campus, since its music is heard and enjoyed by many residents of the Naperville area on WNCC's chapel broadcasts.

Under the direction of Miss June Gruber, Chapel Choir added color and inspirational music to the chapel periods. All North Central College enjoyed a program of Christmas music which was given by the choir in a special chapel program during the holiday season.

Under the direction of Mr. Richmond, the more than sixty voices of Festival Chorus sang "Through the Year(s)." They were not "Without a Song" for this year's Christmas Vespers, which was one of their outstanding programs. They also played an important role in the Fine Arts Festival.

This musical organization contains many Chapel Choir and Concert Choir members. However, anyone who wishes to sing in it is welcome to join.

Going up the scale, the officers, President Curtis Mathison, Vice-President Geraldine Koelling, Secretary Dorothy Foose, Treasurer Ronald Gould, and Accompanist Ruth Ann Haist, finished the year with "Hallelujahs."

Who's Who

This year the faculty committee chose eight seniors to join the ranks of Who's Who Among Students in Colleges and Universities in the United States. In order to qualify, students must achieve excellence and sincerity in scholarship, leadership and participation in extracurricular and academic activities, citizenship and service to the school, and show promise of future usefulness to business and society. Business and industry often refer to this directory in selecting their employees.

Baseball 1951

Weakness at bat and in the field caused the plight of the 1951 Cardinal baseball team to be anything but a happy one as the nine played a dismal 2-11 season.

Only two days out of the 13 game season saw everything go right, and on these two the Cards took full advantage of their abilities to win two. One of these was a 6-4 victory over Elmhurst, while the other was a 17-6 victory over Lake Forest. The second victory was a juicy one, since it knocked the rival Lakers out of a chance for the league crown in baseball, and gave what little satisfaction there was in the losing season.

In the course of their losing streak, the Cards lost to Concordia twice, Wheaton twice, Ill. Wesleyan, Carthage, Ill. College, Lake Forest, Elmhurst, Ill. Tech and Augustana.

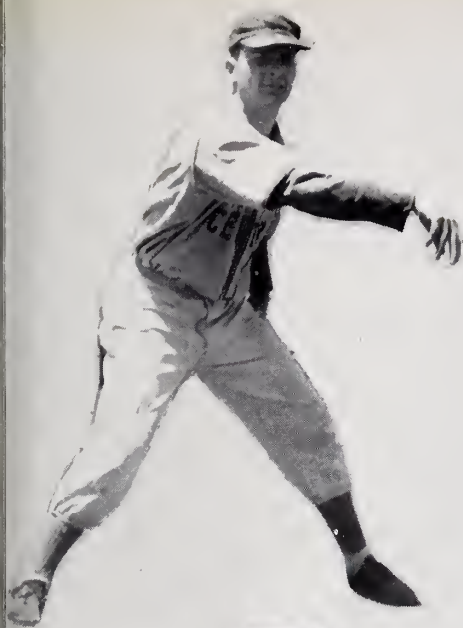

Injuries to Bill Bazant and Jim Hrdina and the loss of Don Rief and Dan Dobrowski created a serious handicap. However, bright spots in the gloom were: the pitching of Duane Mehn, Ray Keller, and Doug Heddon, and the fielding and hitting of Bill Bazant, Bill Gossell, Rog Ulrich, and Tom Stachnik.

Graduation losses seriously hampered the efforts of the 1951 thinclads. Coach Belding, in a period of rebuilding, saw the Cards drop to their lowest conference spot in years. Although the Cards won two dual meets, they were forced to a third in a triangular meet with Millikin and Ill. Wesleyan.

The conference title was won again by Wheaton, and the other Little Nine schools were forced to battle for the runner-up spots. Baseball man Duane Mehn shifted into his track suit for the conference meet and took a place in the broad jump and the high jump, to give the Cards their scoring places. The improving thinclads worked up to a sixth place finish in the Carroll Relays, to give rise to speculation for a better finish next year.

Loren Patrick, who picked up many points in the javelin and discus through the year, suffered the worst loss in the conference meet when his best throw of the day struck an opponent in the leg and caused him to lose the distance. The meet was then interrupted by a rainstorm, and "Pat" was unable to get solid enough footing to get the proper distance for a winning effort.

Outstanding men on the squad beside Patrick and Mehn were Dale Kreske, Stan Skirmont, Don Neuman, Bill Chapek, Warren Cooper, Walt Jelinek, Bob Sebastian, Bob Morauski, and John Adams.

Golf

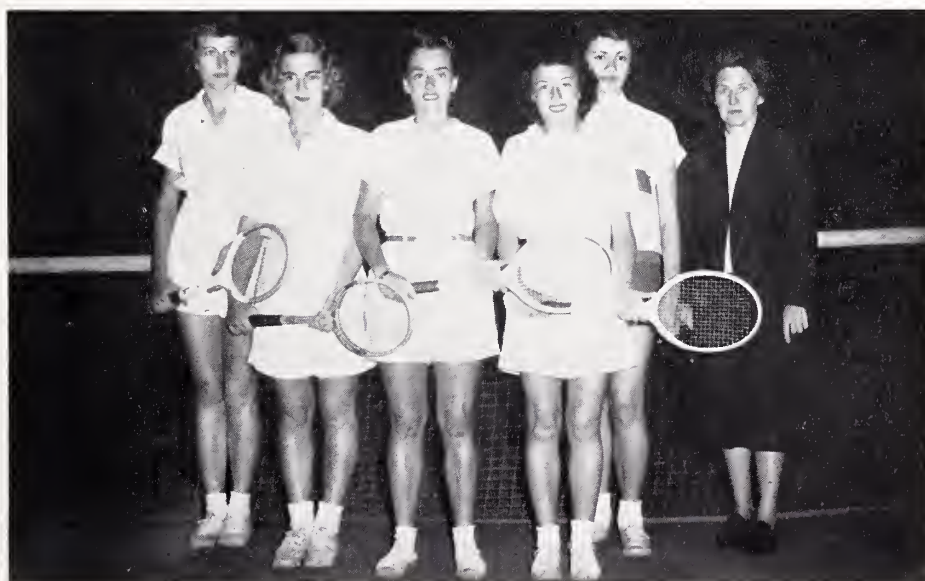

Despite good individual play, lack of team strength and a general inability for all the golfers to have good rounds on the same day hampered the 1951 golf team. The Cardinals took victories over Wheaton and Ill. Wesleyan and were defeated by Lake Forest, Millikin, Chicago, and Elmhurst. They also tied Ill. Tech. The golfers took a 5th in conference play, as Millikin edged out Lake Forest for the title. Letter winners in golf were Warren Vodak, Mike Pope, and Dick Uphoff.

Women's Tennis

Wow! Look at that fuzzy ball fly. Through the help of "Coachette" Tanner, Betty Lou Menzel, Joyce Keller, Dorie Diwall, Betty Staley, Joyce Mertz, and Donna Wadewitz were able to swing up nine wins and one loss (to foe Wheaton) for the Women's Varsity Tennis Team. These swishing racketeers all qualified for their letters. At Decatur, the place of the state invitational tournament, Betty Staley and Joyce Keller took third place in doubles, and Donna and Dorrie copped fourth place.

Tennis 1951

Under the coaching of Bob Dexheimer, the North Central College Cardinal netters completed their 1951 season with four wins, six losses, and a tie. They started slow, dropping meets to Elmhurst and Lake Forest, and then hitting an even draw with Elmhurst.

With the advent of Greenwill, Tan, and Utzman reaching consistency in singles victories, the Cards took three games in a row over Illinois Institute of Technology, Wheaton, and Illinois Wesleyan.

In the CCI tennis matches held at Augustana, Tan and Utzman won the first two matches in doubles competition only to be stopped by Lake Forest, the eventual winner of the meet. Greenwill was eliminated early in the singles competition, while Arboe battled the number one man from Lake Forest to three sets, only to lose. Tom Greenwill promised to deposit his racquet in the Mississippi River if he lost. It ought to be down past Cairo by now.

Ray Polivka, Bruce Berg, and Wally Jelinek completed the squad.

Cheerleaders

"ARE YOU ALL SET?"

The NCC cheering squad has instilled an enthusiasm and spirit into the North Central students that has been lacking for years. The success of the '51-52 cheerleaders has been the by-product of untiring efforts and regular Thursday afternoon practices in which they perfected their yells and added new numbers to their repertoire.

NCC's "iron lungers" amalgamated scattered shouts into coalescent yells (In other words, they organized a Freshman Pep Club). They have also done a remarkable job in getting organized participation from the entire "home side." The squad pulled through the football season in good shape (The only casualty was Bill Chapek's now famous trip over a French Horn) and continued as Red and White livewires, sparking cheering at the basketball games.

The all-set sextet consisted of: Donna Siemsen, Bill Chapek, Joyce Mertz, Skip Filbey, and Marilyn Brownell; led by their captain, Rainie Davis.

Does NC's squad keep up its cheers; even when defeat nears? . . .

North Central's 1952 football season was a disappointing one from a statistical standpoint, but provided thrills and excitement plus for the spectators. With a 3-5 season and a 2-3 conference mark, the Cards dropped down into a lowly sixth place in the Lil Nine.

Long runs, long passes, and rough play featured all the games that the Olsonmen played against their conference and outside foes.

Although backfield men like Dan Dobrowski, Ray Keller, and Dean Harshbarger rated most of the headlines, the linemen like Dick Gauch, Bob Heinrich, Reinhold Heinrich, Dewey Mehn, Dick Johns, and Ron Thoreson did their work well and took most of the bruises.

Dan Dobrowski and Duane Mehn, who acted as co-captains for this year's squad, were unanimous All-Conference selections, while Ron Thoreson was given an Honorable Mention in the balloting.

BELOIT 61 NORTH CENTRAL 20
 Beloit's Buccaneers proved to be too much for the untried Cardinal defensive team in the season's opener, as they romped for a 61-20 decision. The Bucs asserted their superiority in the line in the first few minutes of play, and their split T continued to confuse the Card defenders as the evening progressed. The Cards scored all three of their TD's in the third period, all coming with lightening like speed. Don Neuman picked up the first on a 100 yard kickoff return, while Dan Dobrowski and Dale Kreske picked up the others on shorter runs.

MONMOUTH 13 NORTH CENTRAL 0

A stubborn Monmouth defense, and an inability to get the offense going helped the Olsonmen to absorb their first shut-out in 14 games in their home opener. Paced by the speedy Steve Brooks, Monmouth dominated play for most of the game, as the North Central offense sputtered and stammered. The play of the line again improved, but costly fumbles and intercepted passes hurt North Central in strategic moments.

NORTH CENTRAL 7 ELMHURST 6

A grey rainy day and a slim crowd saw Coach Olson's boys win their first victory of the season on a missed point after touchdown against Elmhurst's Blue Jays.

Bill Gossell scored on a pass from Ray Keller early in the first half, and the Cards hung on the rest of the way to eke out their victory. Elmhurst put up a furious pass attack in the second half which finally gave them a touchdown, but the slippery ball skittered off the side of the kicker's foot and gave the Redbirds their one point bulge.

LAKE FOREST 35 NORTH CENTRAL 7

A rock ribbed defense that held down a highly touted Lake Forest team to a 0-0 tie at the intermission went for naught as the Foresters exploded for three touchdowns in the first five minutes of the second half and went on to win by an appreciable margin.

With the injured Duane Mehn unable to play, the Card offense did not begin to function until the final period when it produced the consolation TD, as Dale Kreske went over from the six yard line.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE 14, N. CENTRAL 7

Illinois College of Jacksonville spoiled North Central's Homecoming celebration as they rocked the Cards with a 14-7 defeat before the largest crowd of the year.

The Blue Boys held a 7-0 half-time edge as North Central was unable to gear its attack properly. Full of fire after the intermission, North Central punched straight down the field for a tie with Dan Dobrowski big man in the attack. Big Dan finally plunged over for the TD, and Walt Larson kicked the extra point.

On the following kickoff Steve Banks of Illinois College returned the pigskin for a winning touchdown, going the whole 100 yards with the Olsonmen in vain pursuit.

WHEATON 26 NORTH CENTRAL 7

Wheaton settled for a 7-7 half-time tie in their annual classic with North Central, and then proceeded to wear the Cards down with superior line play and take a 26-7 victory from the Olsonmen.

After George Dryden had given the Crusaders their lead, the Olsonmen sprung their slickest formations with Dean Harshbarger flipping to Duane Mehn for the tying TD. The Cards drove down to the ten before the half and set the stage for a field goal attempt, but time ran out.

Weight in the line decided the second half, as the out-manned North Centralites were forced to allow three Crusader touchdowns and allow Wheaton to keep the Brass Bell for another year.

NORTH CENTRAL 26 MILLIKIN 12

A hard driving snow that obliterated the landscape and the field set the stage for North Central's upset victory over James Millikin of Decatur.

Dan Dobrowski started things off as he crashed through the center of the line for 46 yards and the opening touchdown. Bill Gossell kept things rolling as he sprinted 68 yards to give the Cardinals a 14-0 bulge on the strength of Walt Larson's perfect placements. The Big Blue struck back for two touchdowns to come up to a 14-12 deficit, but North Central was enjoying the snow, and scored twice more to prove it. Duane Mehn took Dean Harshbarger's "shot put" pass and carried it past the defenders for 70 yards and a touchdown. Don Neuman followed perfect interference for a 12 yard final tally.

NORTH CENTRAL 25 CARTHAGE 19

North Central finished off its season with a win against Carthage, in a game marred by official indifference to the rules and flagrant violations of the rules by the players.

Bill Gossell got the headlines in this game, after he ran a Carthage pass back 40 yards after the half had ended to put North Central more securely in the lead.

The Cards had gotten away to an early 7-0 lead on Dan Dobrowski's TD, but Carthage whittled it to 7-6 before Gossell performed his heroics. Dobrowski scored again in the third quarter, and Don Neuman finished off the tallies for the season. The Olsonmen had to withstand a hard finish by the Indians to pull it out, but they were equal to the effort and finished a losing season on a happy note.

Cross Country

Coach Les Belding's harriers lost their three contests this fall to Navy Pier, Elmhurst, Carroll, and the elements. In rain, snow and the cold the distance men galloped the two miles between halves of football games. Only Lyle Littlewood and Bill Chapek were in the first finishers often enough to earn letters.

The Card runners dropped the bout with Navy Pier at Homecoming, 39-21. Against Elmhurst, the "rabbit chasers" came closest to victory with a 29-28 score. On November 3, they faced Carroll and snow, losing 34-22.

Basketball "B" Squad

The B squad Bombers, commonly known as the "hamburger" squad, played a schedule of 12 games, garnering a 3-9 win-loss record. B squad serves as practice material for the Varsity and gives NC's coming Varsity men good training. The team started the season under Coach Tom Greenwill and finished under Coach Bill Bazant. Team spirit and finesse picked up as the Bombers trounced Aurora College 77-62 and Fournier Institute 73-65, in the last two games. Haskell Love, Al Crabb, and Ed DuPlessis were among the more consistant scorers throughout the the season.

The 1951 edition of the Card basketmen certainly ranked high on spirit and determination—a factor which gave them such a favorable won-loss record and 1498 points.

Paced by big Will Warden's 23 point per game average, the sharp eyes of Co-Captains Don Arboe and Bill Bradish, and the sparkling floor play of Rog Ulrich and Tom Stachnik, the Cards managed a 14-7 win-loss record with a 7-3 in the conference. The Redmen defeated every College Conference of Illinois foe at least once, with the exception of Wheaton.

Dean Harshbarger, Bob Hahn, Bernie Riley, Duane Sahs, and Bill Fink filled out the first ten, but were used sparingly as the starting five proved to be the powerhouse in scoring and defense.

For a season opener, the quintette traversed the roads to Iowa to down Iowa Teachers 58-47 and Grinnell 69-61. Will Warden walked off with top scoring honors in both frays, copping 20 against the Tutors and setting a new individual North Central record of 33 against the Pioneers of Grinnell.

The Olsonmen opened their home contests by throwing a scare into DePaul of Chicago before bowing out, 74-63. Warden with 18 and Arboe with 16 were top point getters in a losing cause. The worst defeat of the season came in the form of a 83-57 trounce by Beloit. Willie Warden had only 14 points for high honors.

The first conference foe of the Cards was Illinois Wesleyan, who fell to the powerful onslaught of Olson and Co. by 73-61.

Warden racked 26 points, Bradish 15, and Ulrich 13.

Opening the cage contests after a Christmas layoff, the Cards dropped one to Fort Sheridan on a very cool three point second quarter, 50-49. Against the U. of Chicago, the Cards walked away victors, 57-50. Warden was high man with 17 points. Against a very hot Lake Forest team, Willie pumped in 25 points, but the cards still came out second best, 86-75. For a follow-up, the NCC five went to Wheaton, only to be downed 75-71 in a close hard fought game Warden took honors with 25 points.

In perhaps the biggest thriller of the year, the Olsonmen dropped Illinois Tech from the undefeated list with a 61-59 victory. Don Arboe's left-handed hook in the final seconds put the game on ice for North Central as Warden got 24 and Arboe 22 in winning. The cross town mates of Tech, the U. of Chicago, bowed to the tune of 73-57 as Warden picked up 30 points.

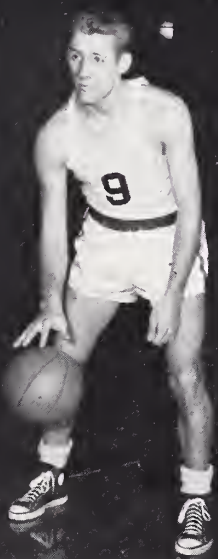

As a revenge match with Fort Sheridan, the Cardinals dumped the soldiers 65-55 as Bill Bradish connected on 22 points for high honors. At Elmhurst, the Redbirds were tops by a 66-55 score with Warden getting 25. The 68-58 upset of conference winner, Millikin was a high spot in the NCC basketball season. Bradish, Arboe, Ulrich, and Stachnik played well in helping Warden score 26 points to swamp the Big Blue.

On the road, the Cards came from behind in two contests against Augustana and Carthage, winning 68-65 for Augies first loss and 64-59 over an inspired Carthage team. Warden with 23 and Arboe with 20 were high against the Vikings, while Warden with 26 and Arboe with 19 had top honors against Carthage.

Stretching their victory skein to eight straight, the Cards edged Elmhurst 75-67, Warden collecting 29 and Bradish 16.

Again Wheaton came out victors by a 74-67 score as Warden garnered 25 and Arboe 23 in losing. The biggest morale victory of the season came in a 69-54 triumph over Lake Forest. Arboe's 24 and Warden's 20 helped in winning. Records fell as North Central bombed Illinois College 99-88 for the conference finale. Warden with 30 and Bradish with 23 had hot nights. Against Illinois Tech in the season closer, no one was hot as they lost 61-51.

Swimming

North Central's tankmen, under the coaching of Dr. Hal Henning, swept the College Conference of Illinois championship with four wins, three losses, and a tie in the dual meet competition.

Prospects looked dim in December, but the unexpected strength of frosh Jim Kalas, Bill Randall, and Bob McBride more than compensated any misgivings. The addition of Doug Scott at mid-season added strength to the team. Other consistent place winners were Captain George Hanosh, Ken Lewis, and Dave Shumaker, while Eddie Kung and Andy Noxon added team depth.

In the conference meet held at Augustana, the Henningmen took seven out of ten events to swamp Illinois Wesleyan and Augustana and annex their third consecutive conference crown. Jim Kalas set a new record of 5:24 in the 440 yard free style and took a second in the 100 yard free style. Bill Randall established a new mark in the 120 yard individual medley with a time of 1:22.1, also gaining top honors in the 200 yard back stroke. Doug Scott captured the breast stroke event, followed in third place by Ken Lewis. George Hanosh captured the fancy diving, while McBride was second in two events.

North Central was also host to the Midwest Swim Meet and the Central AAU in March.

Women's Swimming

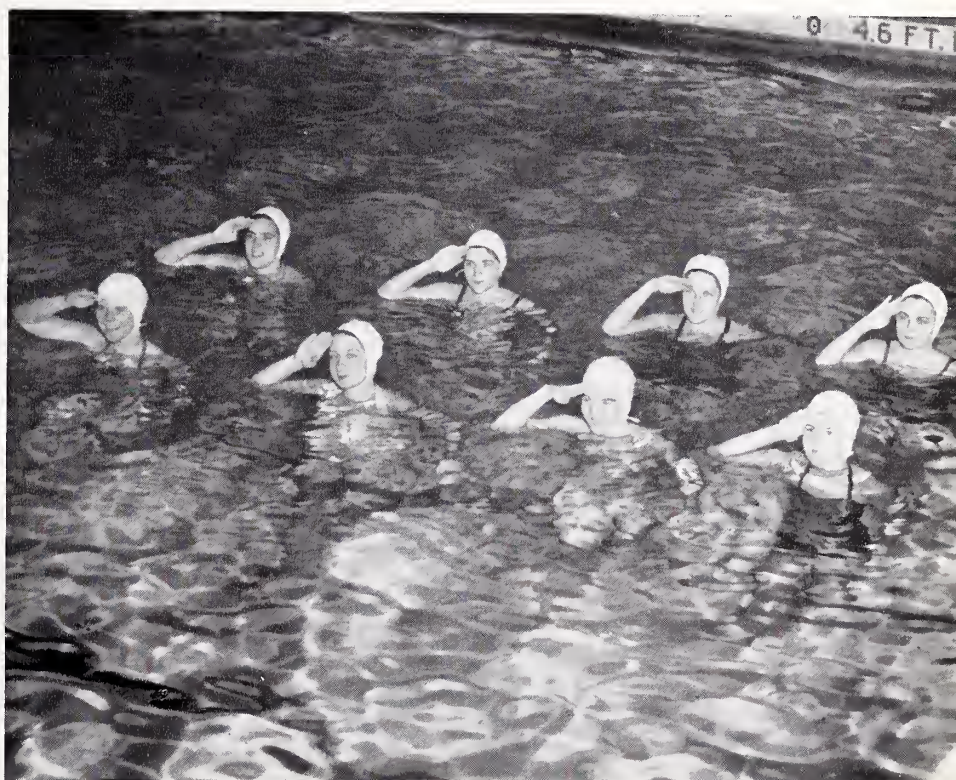

Splash! Bang! Whoops . . . Although not much is heard about NCC's frogettes, they have scheduled meets and workouts regularly under the direction of Mrs. Salsh. The "Merner-maids" who participated in competition were Dorie Pratt, Connie Langher, Violet Pal, Sally Rilling, Joyce Heinzman, Carol Mamsen, Gay Fisher, Nancy Stoddard, Carol Lemke, and Lois Eichelman. Each girl was able to participate in many events and several of them were able to earn enough points for letters.

Water Ballet

In September the girls in water ballet began learning routines and graceful maneuvers which were exhibited in December at their fascinating show, "Water Wanderland." After writing the routines, Connie Langher and Dorie Pratt assisted Mrs. Walsh in teaching them to the girls.

23 ballerinas, dressed in colorful costumes and representing toys, participated in the show. At midnight wooden soldiers, stuffed animals, dolls, and beetles came to life and performed. Dressed as a jack-in-the-box, Bill Chapek acted as the master of ceremonies.

Indoor Track

The 14th Annual Midwest Relays, the most successful since the start of the event in 1937, saw Wheaton continue its mastery, as it won its sixth title in the last seven years. The Crusaders took 94 points to win the Division I title by a large margin over second place Loyola of Chicago.

In the newly formed Division II, for schools under 1,000 enrollment, Beloit and the U. of Dubuque waged a battle down to the wire, with Beloit winning with 48 1-2 points to 41 for Dubuque. North Central, minus top point man Duane Mehn, finished seventh in the field of 11 competitors. Lyle Littlewood was the top man for the Cards, taking a third in both the mile and two mile.

In three indoor meets previous to the Midwest Meet, the Cardinals defeated Navy Pier and Elmhurst—in the Dual Meets—and Elmhurst and Morton Jr. College in a triangular contest.

Duane Mehn, Lyle Littlewood, Don Neuman, and Loren Patrick were outstanding for the Cards in the early meets, while Bill Gossell, Bob Morauski, Dave Meloney, Bob Sebastian, and Dale Kreske also gave good accounts of themselves.

W.A.A.

Members of WAA exercised and played through a successful year under the sportive eye of Miss Tanner. President Connie Langher, Vice-President Betty Staley, Secretary Valerie Uebele, and Treasurer Violet Pal were the chief referees. Full of vim, vigor, and vitality, the girls wrestled with volleyball, basketball, soccer, swimming, tennis, badminton, ping-pong, archery, hiking, (there can't be any more).

Playday also played a major role in the girls' activities. Many of the girls had an invigorating time at playdays at Wheaton, Aurora, and their own swim playday at Merner Field House.

Not only do these girls progress along the line of sports, but they also learn to co-operate and create a fellowship while earning money for this association. Running the concession stand at the basketball and football games was a tremendous task which the girls undertook in conjunction with Varsity Club. Furthermore, through the work of many capable hands WAA was able to take second prize on its float during Homecoming.

All in all, WAA has fully carried through its purpose: to promote an effort for physical efficiency, to stimulate interest in athletics and athletic accomplishment, to create a spirit of good sportmanship, and to co-operate with other campus organizations in promoting and maintaining the highest standards of college life.

Varsity Club

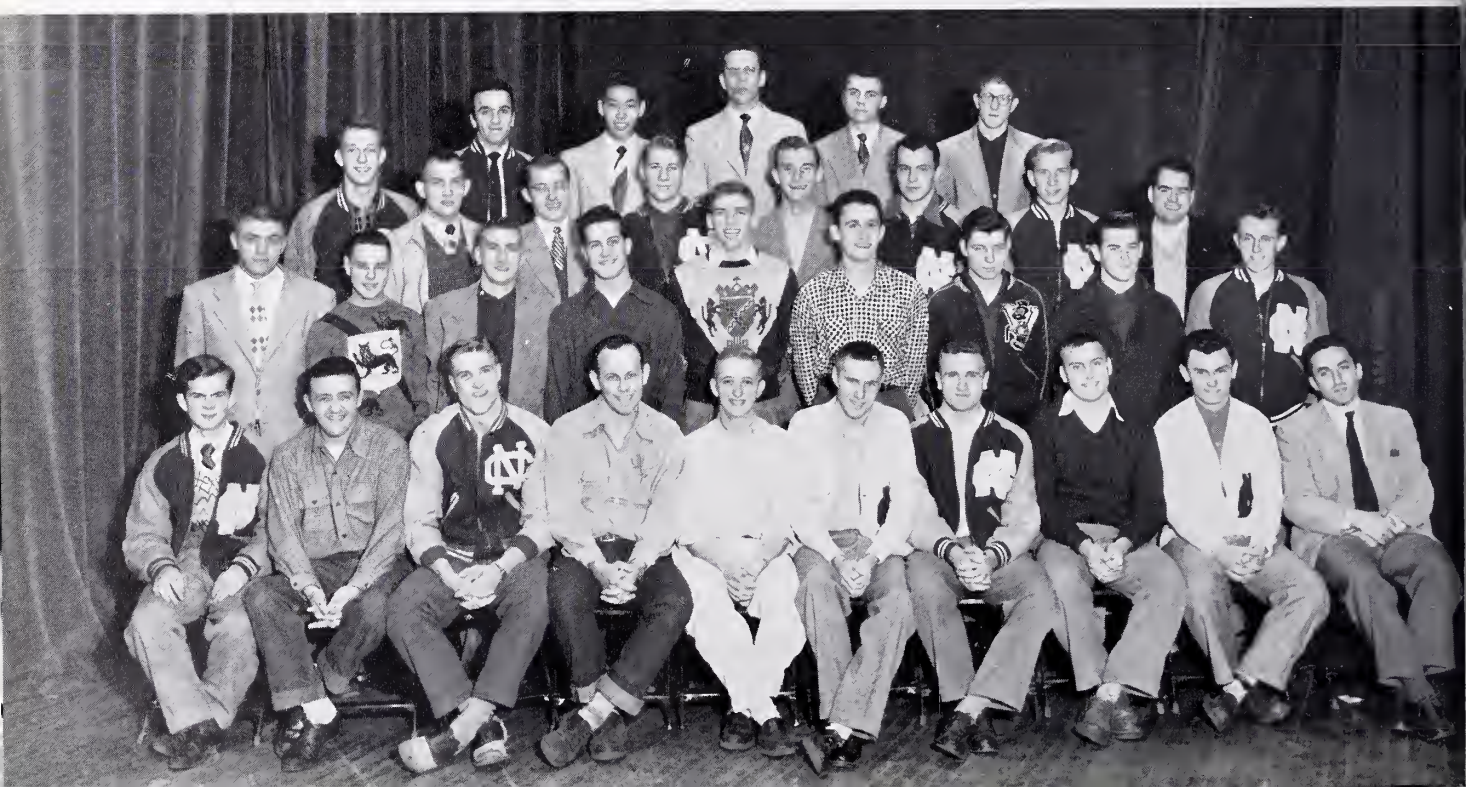

Varsity Club cordially invites all men who have earned a major letter to join and assist it in helping to build a better athletic department on campus. The members met once each month and initiated new members twice during the year.

The hard-working gentlemen who led the club were: Joe Pletcher, president; Bill Bradish, secretary; Dick Gauch, treasurer; and Coach L. C. Belding, advisor.

The Varsity Club man has four purposes to fulfill: (1) to promote a spirit of brotherhood among the members of the varsity teams, both present and past, (2) to work for the highest type of sportsmanship in intercollegiate contests, (3) to be an active agent in honorably interesting high school athletes to choose North Central as their Alma Mater, and (4) to uphold at all times the ideals and standards of North Central College.

Many noteworthy events and projects are sponsored by Varsity Club. These include: Parents Day, in order to pay due honor to the parents of the teams; an all school ping-pong tournament, complete with trophies for the winners; a series of chapel programs; and the election of a queen and her royal court for the Midwest Invitational Track meet. They also aid Mr. Belding during this largest meet of its kind in the midwest by voluntarily assisting in every way possible.

Homecoming

Returning alumni and campus students began a whirling Homecoming weekend with a spicy barbecue feast at Merner Field House. New and old NCCers got into the swing of things during the Square Dance. Afterwards they settled down as an audience to see Ruth Johnson crowned Homecoming Queen of 1951, in the company of her court, Mary Bomberger, Joyce Mertz, Liz Hoel, and Barb Van Adestine. Queen Johnson, encircled by the homecoming crowd, lit the freshman woodpile.

Saturday morning the alumni were kept busy registering at Old Main, watching the sophs beat the frosh in medicine ball at Merner Field, and playing soccer (Ladies only!). In the afternoon, a contingent of NCC floats wended their way toward the field house.

The Cards' touchdown against Illinois College kept the spectators cheering—especially the freshmen, who were liberated from their beanies. Between halves, the judges awarded first prizes to the Student Wives for their float and to Kroehler Hall for their dorm decorations. In the evening, "As You Liked It" was presented as you liked it.

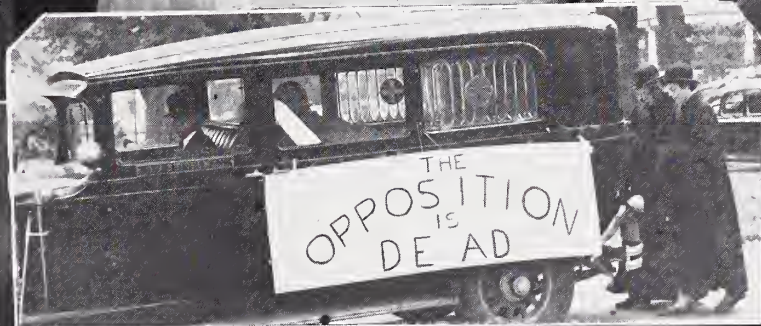

As Homecoming '51 ended on a quiet note with Sunday Night Vespers, co-chairmen Miriam Getz and Tom Moore relaxed.

College Day 1951

The portals of North Central College were opened wide to welcome visitors and prospective students. At Pfeiffer Hall the traditional events took place: John Adams accepted his gavel, the Home Ec girls presented their style show, and everyone was happy to see the 1951 SPECTRUM dedicated to Professor Schap.

In the afternoon the frosh girls pantomined their "Coed Capers" at Merner Field House before the May pole dance. King Rex, Warren Ebinger, kept the attendants, Mary Bomberger, Marilyn Hoover, Ruth Johnson, and Connie Langher, in suspense before crowning Lil Kaiser, May Queen. This was followed by a tennis exhibit and roller skating in Nichols Hall.

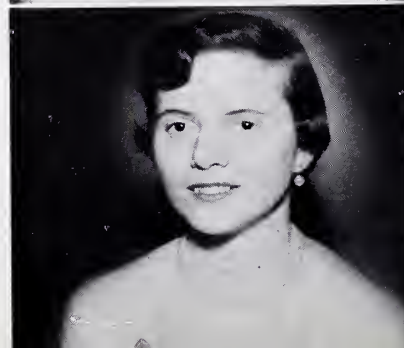

After dinner the "Man Who Came to Dinner" was presented by the Senior Class. King Rex rode his "chariot" to the place of entertainment (courtesy of frosh boys) in order to crown Bob Morauski the new King Rex, while candidates John Adams, Don Kliphardt, Gordon Mahnke, and Tom Moore looked on.

Dorm Supervisors

STANDING: Mrs. Dute, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Turner.

Dorm life would be incomplete without dorm supervisors. At North Central, Mrs. Hunter, Kroehler House; Mrs. Turner, Kroehler Hall; Mrs. Dute, Kaufman Hall; and Bill and Jean Schmidt, Johnson Hall, act in this capacity. Although these supervisors enforce the regulations in the dorms, their position is not one of truant officer, for more often they serve as counselors, listening to personal or group problems, maintaining fellowship among the students and trying to replace the "folks at home" in some measure.

Southeastern and Kappa Kappa

For the past thirty years, fellows from NCC have been eating at Kappa Kappa Klub and Southeastern. The members of Kappa Kappa and Southeastern maintain their own rules and discipline for "gentlemanly conduct." On campus the friendly rivalry between the two groups is evidenced by their complementing maroon with gray (KK) and blue with white (SE) jackets. Through these organizations many students have been given an opportunity to come together and make lasting friendships.

[Editor's reaction: Mildly flabbergasted after having both groups pose in the same picture. (Note division line!)]

Theater Guild

Theater Guild opened its season with a bang. A firecracker exploded as the curtain went up on Kaufman and Hart's "You Can't Take It With You." The play was built around the philosophy of "Grandpa" Vanderhoff (Tom Ludwig) and the romance of Alice Sycamore and Tony Kerby (Alice Fairbank and Don Kliphardt). Mrs. Sycamore, mother extraordinary, painter, and playwright was played by Nancy Stroebel.

The second play to be produced was John Patrick's "The Hasty Heart." This is the story of life in a British Military Hospital in Burma. The story is built around the unfriendliness of Sgt. Lachlen McLachlen, (Don Kliphardt) and how the boys of the ward break his shell only to have him reject them when he finds out that he is going to die. The romantic interest was supplied by Ruth Lahr as Sister Margaret, the nurse.

"State of the Union," by Lindsay and Crouse, starring Chuck Wellnitz, Alice Fairbank, and Lee Dalrymple, containing one man's political ideas and the political party system, was the third play to be presented. Miss Audrey Eichelberger directed all three plays.

North Central Social Calendar

September

Early September began the year,
With 600 and one at NC's premiere.
Beanies, Hi-Howdy, the Torchlight Parade,
None could forget
The "Y" banquets and Tug of War esca-pade.

October

October brought hardy football games,
Hayrides, Orientation (freshman misery!),
Skating parties, homework, and bonfire flames,
Homecoming Queens; and reception of frosh into NCC.

November

Early on a November morn, Came the CHRONICLE picnic (very forlorn),
Later: the DePauw Chorus of the infantry,
Commuter banquet, junior square dancing
spree,
And the traditional Holiday Tea.

December

December brought full-time basketball,
And thrilled all the school (remember De Paul),
"You Can't Take It With You," water
ballet,
Winter caroling, and Christmas Day.

January

Studies claimed most of January,
Lest the students become too merry,
(Professors catch up with those who tarry), Student recitals, box social, crams for exams,
And the "Hasty Heart" by NC's -actors-.

February

Likewise February: Sandburg's poems,
Thrilling all those with ears to hear;
Basketball, those with a voice to cheer.
The perils of winter commuting dimming,
The twenty-ninth neared, (men hiding in homes),
A senior party and one concerning Leap Year,
And victory in conference swimming.

March

With the NC Relays March entered the race,
"Contrasts"; and religious Emphasis Week-
Prepared for all those who seek.
And the Midwest Swim Meet quickened the pace,
The Shamrock Room with lots of fun,
The Junior Senior Banquet, and March was done.

April

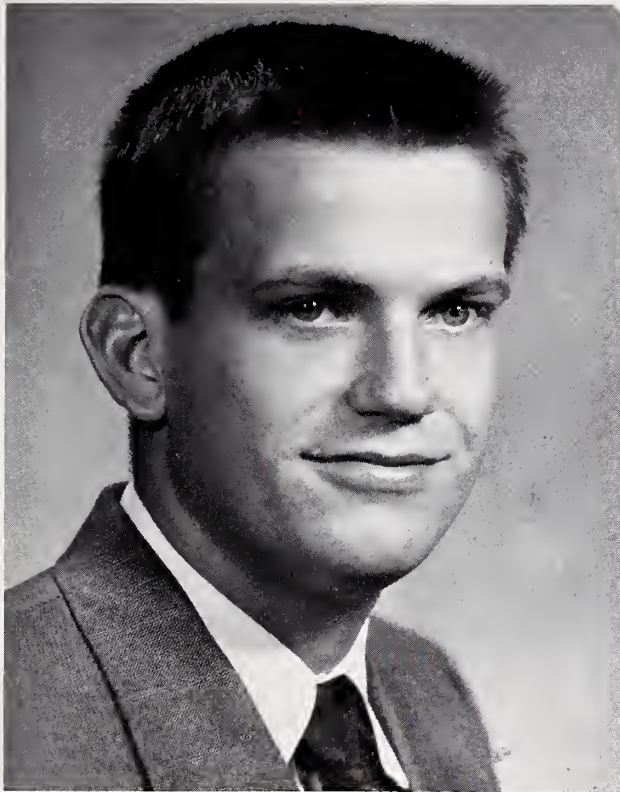

The "State of the Union" enjoyed by all,
And following Easter Vacation lull,
Signs of April, vanishing snow,
Career Conference and Minstrel show,
Coupled studies and fun with Summer's call.

May

May marked the end of four years' time,
And built commencement hopes sublime.
Then the Fine Arts Festival and College Day,
With everyone gay,
Rejoice, my friends, tis the end of the rhyme!

In Memoriam

"Let us live as he has lived,
To keep our house prepared;
For the guest may come too soon
And despatch us unaware."

WILLIAM
WENZEL

Every day, every hour, every moment, someone in this world experiences a tragedy. Somewhere goodness and virtue are forever lost to the world. A life is silently blotted out, a life that perhaps would have gone on to great heights of achievement. Now we feel this most keenly through the sudden loss of one we loved and admired. We who knew him are certain that his gift of determination would someday have contributed much to the world in which he lived.

Yet, the loss of Ross is not a complete tragedy; part of him still lives on among us. His empty chair in the class room speaks of hard won achievement; his own familiar humor still abides in us all; and his empty seat in chapel tells of one whose life was in order with the One above. All of these things we have in remembrance. Then let us not be sad, for Ross has gone to receive his diploma from the greatest president of them all.

Craftsmanship

HAS BEEN THE KEYNOTE of Rogers yearbooks for forty-four years. And it will continue to be our ideal, because responsibility to see that your publication is well printed is shared by the entire organization.

The Rogers tradition of sincerity and quality has been recognized by many schools as a security to the institution and an inspiration to the staff.

Northern Illinois Research is Making a Better World to Live in Weighing radioactive barium carbonate at Argonne National Laboratory—one of the important research centers in Northern Illinois.

THE Northern Illinois area has long been a center of scientific and applied scientific research. The present accelerated pace of industrial development, brought on by defense production, is making this aspect of the area's tremendous facilities more and more significant.

Here, industrial research laboratories are close to broad scientific resources—fine universities for experimental projects—great scientific libraries—and most important of all is the close cooperative relationship between business and education. These are the elements which are so plentiful in Northern Illinois and which are continually intensifying the area's importance in the research field. Even now, there are located here approximately 313 research and testing laboratories and 73 technical and scientific societies with more than 36,000 members.

Nowhere else in the world will you find a greater concentration of this important work going on.

PROPOSED COLLEGE-SEMINARY LIBRARY

Acknowledgment

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the Spectrum Company."—words taken from the thoughts of the editor and business manager at the outset of this 1952 adventure. And come they did—good men and women all—unselfish with their time, untiring in their efforts. This book is the product of the time and effort of many people, only a few of whom are mentioned here.

Special thanks go to Mel Gabel for his quality art work, Chuck Kolb for his countless photographs and wide coverage, Bob Sawvell for his super-salesmanship, Ken Myles and Bill Zielske for countless hours spent on ad selling and mounting, Violet Pal and Jean Oran for being there when needed with that "woman's touch," Tom Ludwig for directing publicity, Joe Pletcher and Neil Colwell for excellent sports writing, and the COLLEGE CHRONICLE for splendid cooperation. We are grateful for the friendly and valuable advice of our advisor, Dr. Mary Anice Seybold.

Our professional thanks are extended to: Mr. Ed Kase of S. K. Smith Co. for help on our cover, Mr. Gib Tansey of Pontiac Engraving Co., Jim Stephenson of Harrington Studios for rapid photo service and Mr. Oliver Rogers of Rogers Printing Co. for friendly and courteous service. We are grateful to our advertisers for their continued interest and backing, for without their help it would have been impossible to publish the 1952 SPECTRUM.

We have not room or words to express our appreciation and gratitude for having been able to work with such a capable and willing SPECTRUM staff.

Dick and Bill
